

Connecting people and native plants
for a health planet

Nearly 10,000
members

118 chapters
across 34 states

Promotes native landscapes through:

Education

Advocacy

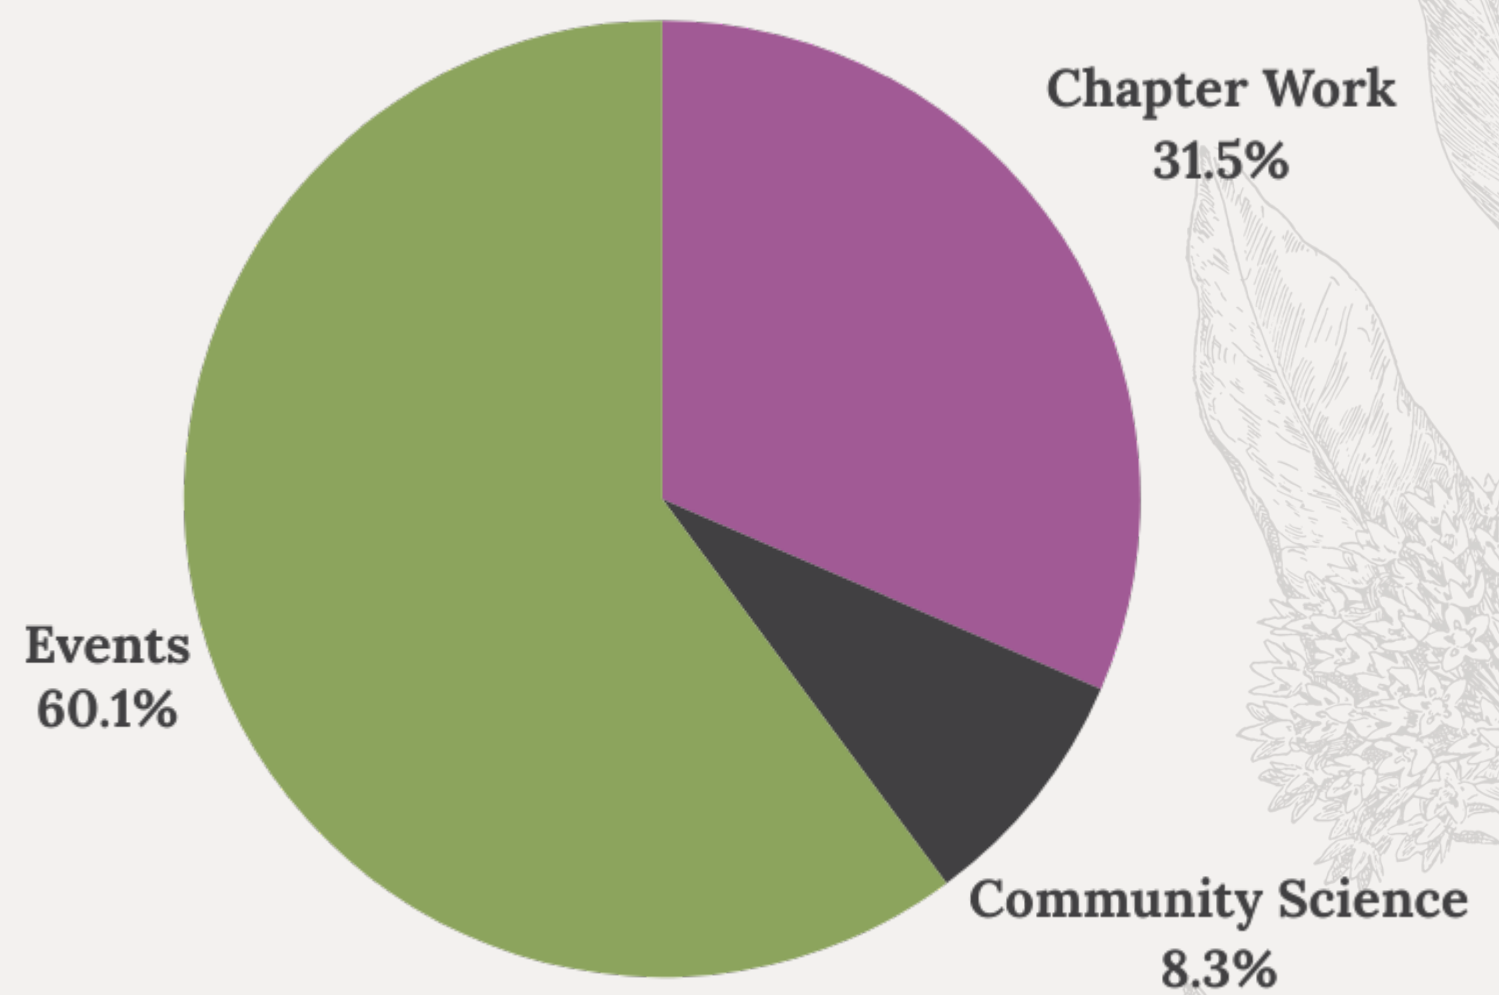

Collaborative Action

Native plants and natural landscapes thriving in every community

2023 IMPACT- STATE OF THE CHAPTER REPORT

Volunteers - 9,474

1,309,851 sq ft of land restored or maintained as native plant habitat

24,081 plants donated

79,820 sq ft of converted turf

1,599 chapter events

79,926 attendees

Propagated 4,099 milkweed plugs and collected 25 pounds of seed

Collaborated with and supported
508 organizations

16% of chapters
involved in research
and/or community
science

PARTNERS AND COMMUNITY SCIENCE

Thank you

Sara Rassing - srasing@wildones.org
Education and Program Coordinator

Jen Ainsworth - execdirector@wildones.org
Executive Director

CONNECT WITH US

@wildonesnativeplants

<https://wildones.org/>

